MEDIA ALERTMEDIA ALERT MEDIA ALERT

Fright Dome kicks off 2011 Halloween season with black carpet and special guests

WHAT:

Michael Myers has come home... will Las Vegas survive? Beginning Saturday, Oct. 1 Fright Dome takes over The Adventuredome at Circus Circus and will partner with Compass Films International to theme two of its five haunted houses after the legendary horror film HALLOWEEN.

To further the fright this year, Owner Jason Egan adds to the excitement and terror of Fright Dome with the first ever grand opening night black carpet. In addition to local celebrities and headliners, Rick Genest, the recognizable "Zombie Boy" from Lady Gaga's hit music video "Born this Way" as well as Joe Letz of famed industrial music groups CombiChrist and Skold will be among those walking the carpet. In his return to Fright Dome, illusionist Dan Sperry will add to opening night with an all new show of shock illusion.

WHEN:

Opening night- Saturday, Oct. 1

Black Carpet - 6 p.m.

Hearse entrance - 7 p.m.

Open until midnight

WHERE:

The Adventuredome at Circus Circus
2880 Las Vegas Blvd. South
